

SOCIETY

On Wednesday evening June 21st Mrs. J. W. Wilson gave a lawn party at her beautiful home in honor of her charming sister Miss Christine Gholson of Fredonia and her niece Miss Madelyn Jenkins.

The young people were met by Misses Susie Boston and Katie Yandell and then taken to the punch bowl where they were given delightful punch served by Miss Maude Hurley.

The lawn was beautifully decorated and illuminated with Japanese lanterns which added much beauty to the many cozy corners and shady nooks.

Progressive conversation was indulged in during the evening which was much enjoyed by the young people.

At 11 o'clock delicious refreshments of apricot ice-whipped cream, cake and salted nuts were served.

The guests departed at a late hour after spending a delightful evening and declaring Mrs. Wilson a most charming hostess.

Those invited to meet the guest of honor: Mary Coffield, Gwen Haynes, Mira Dixon, Elvah Pickens, Maude Flanary, Susie Boston, Nannie Rochester, Kathryn Yandell, Kathryn Yates, Anna Haynes, Melville Akin, of Princeton, Alma Asher, Lena Holtsclaw, Eva Clement, Maude Hurley, and Miss Mosshunt of St. Louis, Mo., Messrs: Maurie Boston, Jones Gill, Homer Moore, Douglas Clement, John Shears, of Lexington, Henry Haynes, Sylvan Price, Gray Rochester, Robert Jenkins, Maurie Nunn, Will Clifton, Aubrey Cannan, Roy Travis, Mr. and Mrs. W. Murray Saunders and her sister, Miss Droste, and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. P. Roberts.

On Monday night Miss Anna Haynes entertained in a very attractive way a number of friends at her beautiful home on College street.

In addition to the common attractions of the evening, several instrumental and vocal solos were rendered and were greatly enjoyed by all present.

The evening was one of the most enjoyable, the weather being clear and the temperature cool.

Delightful refreshments were served and the hours only flitted too quickly. When aias the hour of 12 was heard the guests were very sorry to think that the evening was already spent and the time of departure was at hand. The guests present were: Misses, Mary Gilbert, Susie Boston, Nannie Rochester, Alma Schnable, of Corydon, Hazel Pollard, Ada Mosshunt, of St. Louis, Madeline Cook of Paducah, Lemmah James, Mayme Haynes, Ruth Flanary, Eva Clement, Mary Coffield, Christine Gholson, of Fredonia, Clara Hammock, Messrs. Douglass Clement, Roy Travis, Thomas B. Mather, Sylvan Price, Gray Rochester, Ira Sutherland, Maurie Nunn, Earle Clement, Carter Hardwick, Jones Gill, Givens Dixon of Henderson, Robert Jenkins, Galen Dixon, George Orme, Lucian Walker.

Notice

To Contractors and Builders.

I have two New School Houses to build in the County this year. See me for plans and specifications.

E. Jeffrey Travis, Supt.

A Warning to Farmers.

There is a combination effected, for the purpose of buying this crop of wheat for 70, or 75cts. Do not be deceived by talk of a "bump crop" since the Government report was made; a nation wide drought has prevailed, cutting short the spring wheat in the north west materially reducing the yield by millions of bushels. So pool your wheat and get $1. per bu. Or at least hold it and get a fair price.

Very Respt. J. W. Rascoe President of Crittenden county F. E. and Co-Op Union.

Tolu Ky.,

Greens Chapel

We are sorry to have to urge those interested in the Grave yard at Greens Chapel, we want to put the fence up July 1st. All who haven't responded please attend to this at once. Dinner on the ground. All come and bring sufficient tools to put up the fence and clean off the grave yard. The protracted meeting begins Monday night July 3rd.

Mrs. J. N. Swansey.

A Card of Thanks.

To our friends and neighbors. We want to thank you for your kindness shown to us during the sickness and death of our dear little babe and may the blessings of Almighty God rest on you is our prayers and we are thankful for being in such a good neighborhood and we want to thank Dr. Perry for his faithful attention to us also.

A. J. Henley and wife.

B. A. Enochs Dead.

Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock Benjamin Austin Enochs died of paralysis at his home south west of this city. He had been in ill health for several months but was never really confined to his bed and his death was a great shock to his family and friends. Mr. Enochs is survived by his wife and a large family who live in various parts of the United States. He was seventy-five years one month and eight days old. ### Corner Stone Laid

Continued From Fourth Page.

In opening the exercises Dr. Mather read letters and telegrams of greetings from Rev. Dr. F. M. Thomas, Presiding Elder of the Louisville District, and Hon. Moses D. Williams, of Dallas, Texas, and then, in a few brief but appropriate sentences introduced Hon. John L. Wheat, of Louisville, Ky., who brought a gracious message of greeting from the laity of the Louisville Conference. Bro. Wheat referred in his speech to the remarkable growth of the city of Marion, from 102 people in 1870, to the present vigorous city.

He also made mention of the growth of the Methodist church in the same period and gave warm words of approval to the new enterprise which has just been taken in hand. Miss Anna Haynes then sang very effectively, and this was followed by a deeply interesting speech of greeting from Mr. John B. Thompson, of St. Louis, who referred to Dr. Mather's work in that city, and to the readiness of the Masonic fraternity to respond to his call for service in behalf of the extension of the Master's Kingdom upon earth. Heartly greetings were also brought from Hardinsburg, Ky., by Jesse Whitworth, Esq., who wished the Methodist people every success in their present endeavor, and who paid a splendid tribute to our loved Congressman Ollie M. James, concluding by saying that the people of Breckinridge county thought so much of our Congressman that they would roll up a majority of at least a thousand for him in his Senatorial race.

Dr. R. C. Blackmer, of St. Louis, now followed with special greetings, fraternal and Masonic, and made an interesting address which was greatly appreciated. These were immediately responded to by Virgil Y. Moore, on behalf of the membership of Marion Methodist Church, who covered himself with glory by delivering one of the best speeches of the day. Miss Ada Mosshunt, of St. Louis, next sang "Calvary" in splendid style, her deep, rich, contralto voice being heard to great advantage.

The splendid exercises were brought to a close with an address of great resourcefulness from Rev. Dr. C. C. Woods, Associate Editor of the St. Louis Christian Advocate, who, realizing the lateness of the hour and the almost unbearable temperature, led off in a humorous vein and in his own inimitable way spoke with wonderful effect. The Benediction, pronounced by Dr. Mather brought a memorable occasion to a close.
